Gentlemen:-

I am enclosing herewith a second duplicate of bill for second-hand safes purchased from this Society last December. I can not understand the delay in receiving your cheque - I presume the previous bills must have been mislaid.

Trusting that we may have a prompt reply from you this time, I am,

Very truly yours,

Assistant to Curator.

Gentlemen:

When Marc Eidlitz erected our new building in 1929 you installed the vault doors on the top floor. We wish you would send a man around to examine the nickel work on these doors.

Very truly yours,
